

2021 PSE training opportunities

▲ Nick Barrett, Fitter II and Glenn Huden, PI Inspector with a class of recruits from Bellevue Fire Academy

Responding to electric and natural gas emergencies

Half-day instructor-led training at PSE facility:

Seattle

PSE Georgetown Office
6500 Ursula Place S.
Seattle, WA 98108

8:30 a.m.–1 p.m. on:

- Tuesday, October 5
- Thursday, October 7

Content

- Protecting yourself, your personnel and the public
- Live demonstrations of the characteristics of natural gas and high-voltage electricity
- Managing a variety of emergency situations involving PSE facilities
- Coordinating emergency response with PSE

Registration

Please reserve no later than five days before the session.
Email denise.steendahl@pse.com or call Denise at (425) 456-2489.

Training at your facility:

Content

- Protecting yourself, your personnel and the public
- Managing a variety of emergency situations involving PSE facilities
- Coordinating emergency response with PSE

Registration

Contact denise.steendahl@pse.com or at 425-456-2489 to schedule.

Self-paced online training

Content

- Protecting yourself, your personnel and the public
- Comprehensive review of equipment, operations and response procedures for both natural gas and electricity
- Additional information, resources, table-top exercises based on actual events

Registration

Sign up online at pse.rtueonline.com.