

When sending in Photo's It is important to take pictures of the pole at a distance, so we can see all the Comms attached, and the midspan, to ensure proper clearance, and to identify any violations that may need to be fixed before attaching any Comms. Safety is number 1.