

Puget Sound Energy's 2023 Warm Winter Campaign

Through PSE's 2023 Warm Winter campaign, 75 nonprofits spanning 10 counties received charitable donations totaling $200,000 to support three critical components of a warm winter: meals, clothing, and some holiday joy.

Nonprofit organizations are listed A-Z below by county:

Whatcom: Blaine Food Bank, Blue Skies for Children, Brigid Collins, Communities in Schools Whatcom, DVSA's: Safe House, Ferndale Community Services, Lydia Place, Maple Alley Inn through Opportunity Council, Northwest Youth Services, Point Roberts Food Bank, Vamos Outdoors and Whatcom Council on Aging

Island: I Support the Girls Whidbey, Island Senior Resources, Kids First, Readiness to Learn, Ryan's House for Youth, SPIN Café, STEPS, Whidbey Homeless Coalition and Whidbey Island Nourishes

Skagit: Catholic Community Services, Farmworker Center, Community Action of Skagit County, Friendship House, Skagit Valley Family YMCA and United Way of Skagit County

Snohomish: Cocoon House, Connect Casino Road through Community Foundation of Snohomish County, Esther's Place through Hoff Foundation, Homage Senior Services, Millennia Ministries and Washington Kids in Transition

Kittitas: APOYO, CASA, Community Builders, FISH Food Bank and HopeSource

King: Asian Counseling Referral Services, Byrd Barr Place, Dignity for Divas, El Centro de la Raza, Harvest Against Hunger, Issaquah Food and Clothing Bank, Kandelina, KidVantage, Mount Si Senior Center, Outdoors for All, St Vincent de Paul, Treehouse for Kids and Vashon Interfaith Council to Prevent Homelessness

Kitsap: Bainbridge Island Community Senior Center, Island Volunteer Caregivers, Bremerton Foodline, DoCluvtheKids, Helpline House, North Kitsap Fishline, Salvation Army of Bremerton, South Kitsap Helpline

Pierce: Communities in Schools of Lakewood, Emergency Food Network of Tacoma and Pierce County, Helping Hands House, HopeSparks Family Services, Lake Tapps Senior Center, Multicultural Child and Family Hope Center, New Phoebe House and Orting Senior Center

Thurston: 4 the Love Foundation, Community Youth Services, Dry Tikes and Wet Wipes, Family Support Center and Thurston County Foodbank

Lewis: Boys and Girls Club of Chehalis, Forgotten Children's Fund, Hope Alliance and Toledo Neighbors Program