Project Approach to Siting and Public Involvement

Advisory Group

Puget Sound Energy

Public

NOW

Develops and compiles data

GeoRoute Model

Input into model

Public Meeting and Feedback

GeoRoute Model

THEN

Identifies project need and area

PUBLIC MEETING\n
Uses technical knowledge and professional judgment

Route Options

Public Meeting and Feedback

No clear community preferred alternative

Potential Route Options

Public Meeting and Feedback

Recommends preferred route

Initial Preferred Route

Public Meeting and Feedback

Final Preferred Route

Begin Design and Permitting

Puget Sound Energy
Advisory Group Process

- Use GeoRoute model to develop outputs for discussion
- Provide feedback and help weight avoidance areas and opportunities criteria
- Provide comments on progress to date and community values
- Recommend three alternatives for consideration
- Adapt alternatives
- Provide comments on alternatives
- Review public comments and apply to alternatives
- Recommend initial preferred alternative
- Adapt initial preferred alternative
- Validate initial preferred alternative and provide feedback
- Adapt preferred alternative
- Adapt preferred alternative with public feedback
- Provide comments on preferred alternative
- Inform Advisory Group and public of final preferred route and next steps