Dear Valued Business Customer,

We appreciate your participation in PSE's Time-of-Use ("TOU") pilot program. We are writing to inform you that PSE has filed a proposal with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission ("Commission") in docket UE-250725 to discontinue service on Schedule 324 General Service Time-of-Use with Peak Time Rebate effective on December 20, 2025. Further refinement is needed to create commercial TOU rate plans that have a positive impact on behavior, savings, and experience for non-residential customers. For these reasons, PSE has proposed ending non-residential TOU and returning customers to their default base energy schedule, Schedule 24.

NO ACTION is currently necessary. You will continue to receive service under your existing TOU service schedule, and if approved by the Commission, PSE will mail you in early December confirming that the proposal has been approved.

What is changing?

If PSE's proposal is approved, your electric service will automatically be transitioned back to Schedule 24 General Service on December 20, 2025, unless you chose to switch your service to a different available tariff schedule before that date by notifying PSE.

Schedule 24 General Service Details:

- Available to any customer for general electric energy requirements other than residential service whose estimated or actual Demand is 50 kW or less.

While there are no rate changes being made to Schedule 24 as part of PSE's proposal to the Commission, changing tariff schedules may result in an increase or decrease to monthly bills depending on your usage patterns across the TOU time periods. A typical general service customer using 1,600 kWh per month could see an average monthly decrease of $5.81 on Schedule 24. These figures are based on the average of typical seasonal bills and do not reflect any potential savings by moving usage to off-peak hours from peak hours beyond that of the typical customer. These figures are estimates and do not reflect your specific historical usage.
